GUEST SPEAKER

Kathy Spencer from Labella spoke to the board regarding wind law, environmental impact, sound, lighting, shadow flickering, intervener funds, and 94C.

HIGHWAY

Men off 3/23-3/26 COVID-19 requirement.

Hauled in 317.75 tons of #1 stones 203.96 tons of 1a stone 500.75 item ton of 4 gravel.

Because we couldn't send gravel bids out, Coots extended last year's bids 6 months.

Cut downed trees, opened up seasonal roads, boom mowed 7 times and finished all our roads and spent 1 whole day on Evett Road with the mower.

Ditched Matoon from Cayward to Wheeler line, installed 3 sluice pipes.

Painted all plows and wings. Stored snow fences

Started sweeping roads. Serviced and cleaned boom mower and took back to Pultney.

Started painting trunk dump bodies.

I talked with Russ Kopylczak about putting weeps on Pinney road.

Repairs

T-305 Brake chamber service

T-203 Cab mount steering cylinder

T-200 Starter service

T-100 Service

G-12 Expansion tank

S-121 new wafers, foot control valves

I have kept everyone separate as much as possible to help stop the spread of COVID-19
